

WORK READY DUAL CREDIT SCHOLARSHIP

2025 Update

The Work Ready Dual Credit Scholarship Program (WKDC), provides aid to high school students to pursue dual credit in Career and Technical Education. These metrics reflect the 2023 high school graduates who were recipients of WKDC scholarship.

Of HS Graduates who Received a Work Ready Dual Credit Scholarship:

Top Industries

Of those employed, average wages and employment in the top industries entered by graduates who received a WKDC scholarship.

WORK READY DUAL CREDIT SCHOLARSHIP

2025 Update

66%
of 2023 WKDC HS
graduates enrolled in postsecondary education

High school students who received a Work Ready Dual Credit Scholarship, one year after graduation.

All high school students, one year after graduation.

Over 91% of WKDC high school graduates were employed or enrolled in postsecondary one year after graduation

WKDC high school graduates who were employed but did not enroll in postsecondary, earned a median wage of $17,079

Over 84% of all high school graduates were employed or enrolled in postsecondary one year after graduation

All high school graduates who were employed but did not enroll in postsecondary, earned a median wage of $14,846

In the First Year After High School for Work Ready Dual Credit Scholarship Students:

After high school graduation, 7,457 students were enrolled in a college.

Among those students, a median of 28 credit hours were attempted.

There was a median of 24 credit hours earned.

The median first year college GPA was 3.00.